

A map of a residential area showing a grid of streets and several buildings. A dashed red circle highlights a specific location near a building labeled "FARRIC". The map uses a color-coded legend where yellow represents residential areas, red represents industrial or commercial zones, and blue represents water bodies or parks.